

THE NAUTILUS MALDIVES PARTNERS WITH DOMINVS AVIATION TO LAUNCH ULTRA-EXCLUSIVE CRAFTED PRIVATE JET GETAWAYS

Starting from GBP26,900pp, the unparalleled bespoke private travel experience bypasses crowded commercial airports

13 October 2020: The Nautilus Maldives, an impeccably private island resort in the UNESCO biosphere reserve of Baa Atoll, has partnered with London-based private jet specialists Dominvs Aviation to launch an ultra-exclusive escape to the Indian Ocean. Starting from GBP26,900 per person, the bespoke private travel experience begins with non-stop Bombardier 6000 jet flights departing at guests' convenience from a quiet, secure private jet terminal at one of London's business airports. Bypassing the crowds at the Maldives' main Velana International Airport the jet will land directly at Noonu Atoll's Maafaru International Airport, where the resort's private yacht, Nautilus One, awaits, ready to sail guests away to their private island escape in style.

The highly personalised private travel experience begins in the unsurpassed luxury and supreme comfort of Dominvs Aviation's Bombardier Global 6000 long-range private jet. Every detail of the Global 6000 has been carefully designed to bring the smoothest, most refreshing experience, from the state-of-the-art cockpit, throughout the incomparable cabin, to the tranquil sanctuary of its aft stateroom. The jet's spacious interior features luxurious seating for up to 14 passengers; a luxurious full-size washroom; a private zone that can be arranged as a master bedroom suite; entertainment systems and made-to-order catering – offering uncompromising serenity. In parallel with Dominvs Aviation's trusted global service, the Global 6000 ensures guests reach the Maldives rested, refreshed and ready for the day ahead.

Stepping off at Maafaru International Airport, guests are whisked to The Nautilus Maldives' privately-owned, air-conditioned 54-foot luxury yacht, the Nautilus One, for a short seamless Champagne cruise to the island hideaway. Enjoying a remote setting in Baa Atoll, The Nautilus is a bohemian haven of just 26 exceptionally spacious Houses and Residences, each with its own freshwater infinity pool and extensive deck, and attended by a dedicated House Master offering full butler services. The only Maldivian member of Relais & Châteaux, The Nautilus is the realisation of a vision of life unbound. Casting off the anchor of inflexibility, the resort liberates guests to enjoy a private island experience beyond the constraints of opening hours and menus.

As part of the exclusive package, guests can enjoy a host of signature experiences including a couples' massage by the expert wellness therapists at the resort's Solasta Spa; a private aerial yoga session with the island's resident yogi; and a personal guided snorkeling tour of the island's majestic house reef. Additional exclusive benefits available to guests booking the private jet package include discounts on renowned resort experiences such as 'Cinema Under the Stars' with a private fresh BBQ dinner cooked by The Nautilus' award-winning chefs; a private lunch on the island's castaway sandbank; a Maldivian cooking class; or a five-course degustation dining experience at the resort's signature fine-dining restaurant, Zeytoun.

Prices start from GBP26,900 per person for six nights*, including: private jet charter with Dominvs Aviation through a private terminal from a London business airport to Maafaru International Airport, Maldives; full three course meals and a full bar service throughout the flight; return private yacht transfers from Maafaru to The Nautilus Maldives; Beach House with Private Pool accommodation; daily breakfast; a 60-minute couple's massage; a private aerial yoga session; and a personal guided snorkelling tour of the house reef. *Price based on six adults travelling together and sharing three Beach Houses. About The Nautilus Maldives

Located in the UNESCO biosphere reserve of Baa Atoll, The Nautilus Maldives (www.thenautilusmaldives.com) is a luxury bohemian hideaway which celebrates freedom and individuality, where guests are encouraged to be themselves and shape their own personal journey. The Maldives' only member of Relais & Châteaux, The Nautilus offers a choice of 26 Beach or Ocean Houses inclusive of nine awe inspiring Beach or Ocean Residences and can also be taken exclusively as a private island. Accommodation is perfect for groups or families, sleeping anywhere from four up to twelve guests at The Nautilus Mansion. Dining is "unscripted" and is about liberating the palate. There is nothing so pedestrian as dress codes, opening and closing times or tray charges; menus at overwater fine dining restaurant Zeytoun, beachside grill Ocaso, poolside bar Naiboli and the relaxed Thyme 'all day dining' are for inspiration only. Each and every House is attended by a dedicated private butler, taking care of every whim and need whenever they arise. A beautiful overwater spa (using products by Maison Calulières and Omorovicza), a liveried fleet of yachts and a seaplane, beautiful 'boho-luxe' interiors and a breathtaking house reef offer a quintessential Maldives experience at the highest level, without need for gimmicks. Understatement is king at The Nautilus; it whispers to discreet high net worth travellers who wish to fly under the radar. In his 1870 classic Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea, Jules Verne described his legendary Nautilus as a "masterpiece containing masterpieces"; launched in Spring 2019, The Nautilus Maldives is quickly earning a similar reputation, since it has just been recognised amongst the Top Three Resorts in the World and as the Best Resort in the Indian Ocean within Condé Nast Traveller's Readers' Choice Award 2020.
